

Program

15/7/2014

9:00-9:30 Registration

9:30-9:45 Welcome Address from a representative of the Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage of Ca' Foscari University Venice

Seminars

9:45-12:45 Prof. Claudio Majolino (University of Lille)

The Many and the Many. What has Phenomenology to do with Manifolds?

12:45-15:00 Lunch break

15:00-18:00 Dr. Daniele De Santis (Seattle University)

The Unity of the Ideal and the Multiplicity of the Real

16/7/2014

Seminars

9:30-12:30 Prof. Burt Hopkins (Seattle University)

Husserl and Jacob Klein on Arithmetical Unity and Multiplicity

12:30-15:00 Lunch break

15:00-18:00 Dr. Matteo Giannasi (Ca' Foscari University Venice)

The Ontological Significance of Intersubjectivity

17/7/2014

Seminars

9:30-12:30 Dr. Emiliano Trizio (Seattle University)

Know yourself and you will know us all. Philosophy, human existence, and self-explication of reason

12:30 Lunch break

15:00-18:00 Prof. Nicolas de Warren (Husserl Archives at KU Leuven)

Plurality and the human condition

18/7/2014

Student Presentations

Moderator: Prof. Alfredo Ferrarin (University of Pisa)

9:30-10:20 Aurélien Djian (University of Lille)

Hen epi pollon: the origin of the Husserlian doctrine of the eidetic variation in the disagreement between Plato and Aristotle on "universals"

10:20-11:10 Philipp Schmidt (University of Vienna)

At the heart of Husserl's transcendental idealism: The constitution of inner time-consciousness and the possibility of a phenomenology of the Urfluss

11:10-11:40 Coffee break

11:40-12:30 Regina Nino-Kurg (University of Fribourg, Switzerland)

Edmund Husserl's theory of image consciousness

12:30-15:00 Lunch break

15:00-15:50 Jana Unmüßig (University of the Arts Helsinki)

Seeing as a phenomenological practice fostering bodily co-presence

15:50-16:40 Aleksandra Szulc (Szczecin University)

Stein and Heidegger – Two Phenomenologies

16:40-17:10 Coffee break

17:10-18:00 Elisa Magrì (UCD Dublin)

The Role of Embodiment in Edith Stein's Account of Empathy

18:00-18:10 Conclusion and greetings